

APPLICATION FOR A TRAVEL GRANT AS A PHD STUDENT

To be sent only by email latest by March 10th, 2023 to:

Professor Krystyna Skalicka-Woźniak
Department of Natural Products Chemistry
Medical University of Lublin, Poland
Email: kskalicka@pharmacognosy.org

Family name: _____ First Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

GA membership number: _____

GA member since: _____ (Applicants have to be at least in their 2nd year of regular student membership with paid fees; there are no exceptions)

Title of the abstract: _____

Authors: _____

Your affiliation: _____

Are you a GA member from a country with a reduced fee membership*:

yes  no

Have you already received a GA travel grant?  yes  no

If yes, when? _____

Please confirm that the abstract has already been submitted to the GA Annual Conference:

yes  no

Will you be travelling to the conference from your home country?

yes  no, from _____

Documents to be included with this application:

- Letter of recommendation from your supervisor
- Curriculum vitae (max. 1 page!)
- Scan of the valid student identity card or an equivalent certification from the university confirming that you are a PhD student
- Abstract (please check and adhere to the conference guidelines!)
- Estimation of travel and accommodation costs

Date: _____

Signature: _____

*Regular fee countries:

All EU countries, Iceland, Norway, Switzerland; South Africa; USA and Canada; Israel, Japan, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, South Korea, Taiwan, Turkey, United Arab Emirates.

All other countries are reduced fee countries.